Electronic reporting for-hire six-pack charter vessels

VESL Data (<https://vesldata.com>) is an electronic tool available for you to report your trip-level logbooks online. If you're a new license holder, an invitation from Bluefin Data, LLC (support@vesldata.com) will be automatically sent to the email address listed on your application. If you're renewing your license and have already registered, no action is needed to continue reporting with your new license number.

Trouble logging in? Your email address is your username. Try the "forgot password" button on the login screen.

No charter activity? Click on either the Reporting Status or Create No Business tabs and click the blue "File no business" button on the right (associated with each month of the fiscal year).

Federal Permitting Requirements for Charter/Headboat Operators

Disclaimer: This document is for general informational purposes only. For specific permitting information, or to apply for a permit, contact the respective federal agency listed below.

State licensed charter vessels who fish for federally managed species in the Exclusive Economic Zone (EEZ; 3-200 nautical miles offshore) must obtain the appropriate permit(s) for the fishery or fisheries in which they are engaged. There are separate federal reporting requirements. If using the electronic reporting system (i.e., VESL) mentioned above, each report submitted will fulfill both state and federal reporting requirements under the Southeast For-Hire Integrated Electronic Reporting Program (SEFHIER). (Note: SEFHIER requires weekly reporting.) For more information on reporting, please visit the websites above.
