

Lines of Communication

Conversations with the Council

The Lines of Communication Meetings are a chance for fishermen to sit down with Council members in an informal, relaxed setting. Unlike traditional meetings, they are all about dialogue. Your voice helps shape the future of fisheries in the South Atlantic, and we want to hear from YOU.

Scan the QR code to learn more!

Meetings will be held twice a year in two different states. The next three sessions will be held in North Carolina and run from 6-8pm at these dates and locations.

Wilmington
February 2
Town Creek
Community Center

Morehead City
February 3
NC DMF Central
District Office

Hatteras
February 4
Hatteras Civic Center

Manteo
February 5
Virginia S. Tillett
Community Center

The South Atlantic Fishery Management Council