

As a member of the Spiny Lobster Advisory Panel for the SAFMC, I agree that we should ban imports of this species that are smaller than the existing Continental U.S. and Caribbean U.S. minimum size limit. We should also ban imports of tail meat, berried lobsters and tails that have been stripped. The present loopholes are causing a decline in the U.S.'s present lobster population.

Robert C. Burton
1665 Palm Beach Lakes Blvd., Ste. 1001
West Palm Beach, FL 33401
561-471-2995