

Gulf of Mexico Fishery Management Council position on compensation

The Gulf Council approved paying half-day compensation for both eligible SSC and Council members for participation in webinars, conference calls, or any other electronic meeting if the meeting is less than 4 hours. If the meeting is 4 hours or more, both groups will receive the full daily compensation rate. This pertains to official meetings noticed in the Federal Register.